ABOUT WAYNE STATE COLLEGE

In 1891, Wayne State was founded as a Normal School, a teacher's college, became a state school in 1910, and was renamed Wayne State College by the Nebraska legislature in 1963. We have become a leading comprehensive college in Northeast Nebraska, with 15 academic departments within four academic schools and more than 130 career pathways.

Our newest undergraduate programs include engineering technology, accelerated nursing, and pre-public health. New master's programs include human performance and wellness management, criminal justice administration, and interdisciplinary studies.

Wayne State offers more than 100 clubs and organizations in areas of academics, government, recreation and sport, religion, service, special interests, and social programs. Students are encouraged to join activities, clubs, and organizations that appeal to their interests. Club sports are incredibly popular, with many teams earning high ranks at regional and conference tournaments, and later advancing to compete and place on a national level. WSC's newest club sports include esports, women's volleyball, and disc golf. Athletics have enjoyed a rich tradition of success and been an important part of the College since 1912. The College offers six men's sports and nine women's sports at the NCAA Division II level.

Wayne State College serves as a model of success for regional public higher education. Investments in infrastructure and facilities, expanded academic programs and partnerships, a campus-wide approach to recruitment and retention, and a commitment to strategic planning have yielded 28% growth in enrollment during the past six years, soaring to more than 4,500 students.

Wayne State's cost of attendance is among the lowest in the Midwest among four-year colleges and universities. Our aggressive work to keep costs down while leveraging scholarships and aid have resulted in the average indebtedness for graduates decreasing each year for the past four years, from $23,599 to $18,088, while the percentage of students graduating with zero debt has grown to 35% from 31% during the same period.

Students learn from accomplished faculty. Several are highly regarded as experts in their discipline and have been recognized with notable honors and awards. With a 20:1 student-to-faculty ratio, students receive an excellent education in a personalized setting and 86% of faculty hold the highest degrees in their fields.

The College's momentum is sustained by a data-driven blueprint that aims to inspire students, strengthen communities, and serve our region. Our goals are clear: continually improve retention and graduation rates; provide high-quality academic programs and campus facilities; support workforce and economic development in the region; maintain affordability and access; and manage resources for sustainability.

Our physical campus is beautiful and well-positioned to meet our needs. Careful planning and stewardship have brought about a newly built Center for Applied Technology, several completely renovated residence halls, academic buildings, and athletic facilities, and an inviting Campus Commons area at the center of a 128-acre campus that speaks directly to visitors about the pride we have in our history and traditions. The campus will open its first new residence hall in 58 years, scheduled for the Spring of 2025. Also underway is a new athletic and recreation center. Since 2017, campus investments total more than $90 million.

Alongside our commitment to the physical campus, the College's vision, mission, and core values precisely define our highest aspirations, our commitment to the students we educate, and the guidance we have set for ourselves and our important work.

We are passionate, committed, and dedicated to helping our students fulfill their dream of earning a Wayne State College degree. The institution's core values around diversity, engaged learning, sustainability, innovation and agility, partnerships, and culture and community guide the strategies and the execution of the mission while serving as the foundation for Wayne State's work.

Wayne State students, staff, faculty, alumni, and friends hold this institution in high regard for a reason. The College was borne out of the hard work, tenacity, and grit of early leaders and has been sustained and advanced by the same spirit throughout its history. We invite prospective students and employees to join us on our mission. Learn more at www.wsc.edu.
